INTRODUCTION

"DOD'S PEERAGE," now in its 78th year of publication, was enlarged in 1914, and will henceforth contain particulars of all immediate living relatives of the present and deceased heads of hereditary titled Families, with their residences, also of the sons and daughters of Bishops, Privy Counsellors, and Knights, and the surnames of Peers; the whole grouped in one alphabetical list.

Only those members of the family who are alive, or being dead have left widows, are inserted, except in cases where it is necessary to show the relationship of the present holder of the title (or the heir presumptive) to a former holder of the title.

Experience, and the numerous letters which the editor has received during past year show that a "Peerage" is principally referred to as a book of reference for precedence, to ascertain dates of birth, marriage and death, or to find how certain people are related to one another, and these are the considerations which have been borne in mind in re-modelling the book.

In the preliminary pages of this volume will be found,—

FIFTY-SIX ILLUSTRATIONS.—Amongst these are the insignia peculiar to Princes, Peers, Bishops, Baronets, Knights of the Garter, the Thistle, St. Patrick, the Bath, the Star of India, St. Michael and St. George, the Indian Empire, the Royal Victorian Order and the Order of the British Empire, members of the Order of Merit, Distinguished Service and Imperial Service Orders, Victoria and Albert, the Crown of India, Victoria Cross, etc.

PRECEDENCE.—An essay in which the grounds for each claim to precedence are examined and explained at length, under the head of every office or dignity. To this are added tables of knightly, judicial and legal, clerical, university, naval, military, and diplomatic precedence; as well as an article on precedence amongst ladies.

A LIST OF HIS MAJESTY'S OFFICERS OF ARMS.

THE ROYAL FAMILY.

A LIST OF OFFICERS OF HIS MAJESTY'S NAVY AND ARMY whose names appeared in the Peerage and who have lost their lives in the war.

The following classes will be found collected into one general dictionary, in which details are given of their titles, parentage, ages, marriages, education, professions, residences, public services, offices, the occasions on which their titles were conferred, with numerous historical, personal, and professional details.

THE PEERS.—Accounts are contained in the following pages of the heads of all the noble families in the empire, whether belonging to the English, the Scottish or the Irish peerage, together with all their immediate LIVING relatives. These notices are characterized by frequent reference to the circumstances under which titles originated, to the revival of ancient dignities, or to any peculiarity in the course by which honours have descended, or are intended to descend.

THE PEERESSES.—In the particulars given of the head of every noble family, the married ladies and the dowagers connected with each are mentioned; while, as regards Peeresses in their own right, separate statements will be found in their proper alphabetical position.

THE BISHOPS.—Copious notices are given, of all English, Irish, or Colonial diocesan Bishops and Bishops Suffragan having territorial titles in British Dominions, as well as the Bishops of the Episcopal Church in Scotland, including particulars of the local extent of their jurisdiction, the colleges at which they were educated, their births, marriages, and issue.

THE BARONETS.—Respecting this large division of the titled orders, the usual details will be found, compiled with great care, and presenting in every respect all the requisites of a complete Baronetage of England, Scotland, and Ireland.

THE SCOTTISH JUDGES.—The Lords of Session. During the last three centuries they have enjoyed the style and title of "LORD," with the prefix of "HONOURABLE."

THE PRIVY COUNCIL.—A considerable proportion of this body are either Peers, Bishops, Baronets, or Knights; but such as are not included within these Orders are men of great eminence in the State, and fill or have filled the highest offices in the public service. Enjoying the prefix of "RIGHT HONOURABLE," they may be regarded as forming a portion of the titled classes; and, considering the conspicuous position which they occupy, nothing that relates to them can be indifferent to the public. Details respecting all the Privy Council and information as to their children, will therefore be found in this work under their individual heads.

THE KNIGHTS OF THE BATH AND OF ST. MICHAEL AND ST. GEORGE.—In these Orders will be found the ministers who represent British interests at foreign courts, or the officers belonging to both branches of the service, whose achievements in various quarters of the world have procured the approbation of the crown and commanded the gratitude of the country.

THE KNIGHTS OF THE ORDERS OF THE STAR OF INDIA AND OF THE INDIAN EMPIRE.—In these Orders will be found officers of the Navy and Army who have distinguished themselves in India, and diplomatic and civil servants of the Crown in that part of the British possessions, together with native Princes and others who have rendered conspicuous and useful services to the Indian Empire.

THE KNIGHTS OF THE ROYAL VICTORIAN ORDER.—In this Order will generally be found those subjects whose personal services to the Sovereign have been specially recognized.

DAMES AND KNIGHTS OF THE ORDER OF THE BRITISH EMPIRE.—In this Order will be found men and women who have rendered important services to the Empire.

THE KNIGHTS BACHELOR comprise a large body of eminent lawyers, judges, men of science and of letters, physicians and surgeons, diplomatists, and artists. The notices of this branch of the titled classes, state, with all other particulars, the offices they have held, and the services which each has performed.

WIDOWS OF KNIGHTS.—Until the production of an article under this title in 1851, no work of reference existed which gave any account of some 200 persons entitled to the prefix of "Lady," and being the widows of Knights whose titles are extinct.

At the end of the volume will be found:—

DORMANT TITLES AND TITLES IN ABEYANCE OR UNDER ATTAINDER, with the possible heir or coheirs to, or claimants of, such titles, and information as to such cases as are now before the House of Lords, together with an index to the names of such heirs.

View of Titular distinctions and Terms relating to Ranks.

MODES OF ADDRESSING LETTERS.—A series of statements, arranged in alphabetical order, exhibiting the formal mode of addressing letters to every person of title.

KNIGHTS of the Order of the GARTER, of the Order of the THISTLE, and of the Order of ST. PATRICK.

ORDER OF MERIT.

The VICTORIA CROSS, the ROYAL VICTORIAN CHAIN, the Commanders of the BATH, of the Order of ST. MICHAEL AND ST. GEORGE, of the ROYAL VICTORIAN ORDER, of the Order of the BRITISH EMPIRE, the COMPANIONAGE, etc.

Of the labour bestowed upon this history of the titled classes, no estimate can be formed by persons unaccustomed to literary toil; nor probably could the most experienced compilers—otherwise than from actual observation—form an adequate notion of the pains with which its materials have been accumulated and corrected, classified and condensed. To say, as is the case, that it contains the statement of thousands upon thousands of facts, still affords no means of imagining the extent of research and inquiry requisite for such a compilation, or the liability to error necessarily inseparable from so large an accumulation of minute particulars. Although many sources are available from which data can be procured whereby the work may be corrected and brought down to date, proofs of the articles are sent out annually to all members of the families treated of, whose addresses are obtainable, and it is on the information furnished by them that reliance is chiefly placed; it is felt that if this point were more generally realized by members of the aristocracy they would, in their own interest, return the forms sent to them, notifying changes of address and particulars of other necessary alterations. While there exists so great a liability to error, it is hoped that the few inaccuracies which may possibly appear will not be imputed to haste or negligence; and that the reader will continue to appreciate this account of the titled orders, forming a volume of convenient size and moderate price, particularly easy of reference, and embracing, without diffuseness, that knowledge which the public naturally desire to obtain concerning the Aristocracy, and which the higher classes usually possess with respect to each other.

 All communications respecting the contents of this work should be addressed to the EDITOR OF "DOD'S PEERAGE," 12, Mitre Court Chambers, Temple, London, E.C.

PRECEDENCE

PRECEDENCE is not regulated by mere conventional arrangements; it is no fluctuating practice of fashionable life, no result of voluntary compacts in society, no usurpation of one class over others; but, on the contrary, is "part and parcel of the law of England"; subsisting under the authority of acts of parliament, solemn decisions in courts of justice, or public instruments proceeding from the Crown. The earliest statute on the subject of precedence is the 31st of Henry VIII. cap. 10, which, although passed chiefly for the purpose of fixing the official precedence of certain state functionaries and of the Lords in parliament, has been accepted as an authority for placing these persons on all occasions, whether specially named in the act or not. The next public documents relating to this subject are the decrees of James I. issued in 1612 and 1616: then the 1st of William and Mary, cap 21; the 10th of Anne, cap 8; the 5th of Anne, cap 8; the 39th of George III. cap. 67; with many other acts determining individual precedence, besides royal ordinances, decrees, warrants, letters patent, and statutes of knightly Orders.

At all periods of our history, but especially during the last 200 years, the aristocratic spirit of British society has presented a well-defined and ascertained character. From this source have sprung a variety of arrangements connected with court ceremonial as well as with the intercourse of private society, which are mingled with, but in some respects quite distinct from the rights, privileges, and powers of those who are employed in the public service. For example, though each rank in the peerage commands, according to a certain graduated scale, the respect of society, while it gratifies the ambition of its possessor and his family, yet no one member of the House of Lords possesses in his political or judicial capacity any greater amount of power than his brethren; the vote of a duke reckons for no more than the vote of a viscount or baron.

It is to be observed, that primogeniture and seniority are amongst the leading principles of our system of precedence. Priority of birth, and dates of patents and commissions, determine the precedence which individuals of the same rank take amongst each other, and thus the station and degree of each are ascertained by means which rarely admit of controversy or doubt.

In Great Britain all rank and honours are either hereditary, official, or personal. The order of baronets, the five ranks of the peerage, and the sovereignty of the realm, constitute the hereditary distinctions in society. The discharge of public duties, civil, military, and ecclesiastical, impart official dignity, while a seat in the Privy Council or in the House of Commons, the honour of knighthood, patents of precedence at the Bar, etc., confer distinctions which, being neither hereditary nor official, may fairly be comprehended under the third of the above-named classes.

In seeking to arrive at clear and satisfactory views of a subject like this, we are naturally induced to venture upon some attempts to trace these honorary distinctions to their respective origins, and to examine their remote as well as their recent history; but yet even these aids do not secure all the information that is necessary to satisfy the demands of a liberal curiosity. There are no authentic sources from which any very material information can be derived with respect to the manners and customs of our remote ancestors, as regards rank, place, and precedence. In a primitive condition of society, the supreme ruler, the priesthood, and the people are the natural divisions into which a nation would, as it were, classify itself. Any inquiry into the usages of the Saxons, still less into those of the ancient British, would supply but little assistance towards rendering more interesting or useful the account here proposed to be given of the various orders of society in this country. It is well known that the Norman invaders and their descendants assumed in England all those exclusive privileges by which they made themselves everything, and the serfs, who cultivated the soil, no better than slaves. Although the legal institutions, the language, and the lineage of the Saxons, in process of time, recovered their influence, and ultimately prevailed, yet it is to our Norman conquerors, and to their usages, we must look for the germ of that which constitutes our ceremonial and titular code—the principle upon which our ranks and dignities have been formed and arranged, as well as the power by which they are conferred. Still it is only the germ of that system that modern English society may be said to have derived from the rude soldiers of fortune who followed in the train of William, Duke of Normandy. With the consent of their leader, they constituted themselves the nobles of the land; and though the titles of duke and earl might be traced to an age antecedent to the extinction of the Saxon dynasties, yet a long period elapsed after the Conquest before any other degrees of nobility than those of baron and of knight were established in England. The latter was, as it still continues to be, a personal distinction; the former, a result of territorial possessions. It was the tenure of certain lands which in those days imparted to a man the dignity of a baron. Many knights possessed what were termed "knights' fees," and if they held such lands they were bound to perform "knights' service"; but the existence or continuance of knighthood did not in any respect depend upon territorial possessions.

It is here perhaps not unworthy of observation, that inasmuch as the Crown has not extensively exercised the power of giving precedence to new knights or newly made barons, over men already in the enjoyment of those dignities yet the monarch gradually called into existence new orders of nobility; and though he did not much alter the positions of individual nobles amongst each other in their respective ranks, yet he assumed the power of placing one entire order above another. Thus the whole peerage at one time consisted chiefly of barons; and now barons form its lowest rank: for each successively created order was placed not after, but before those who may be considered to have constituted the original nobility of the land. In like manner the ancient and general fraternity of knights bachelor has been moved downwards in the scale of precedence, to make way for the knights of the several Orders and for the baronets.

In the subjoined tables of precedence the reader will find that, wherever necessary, an explanatory notice has been given under each head, to account for the arrangement adopted, to show the relation which that particular rank may bear towards others, to describe changes, anomalies, and exceptions, or to supply any additional information which the case may seem to require.

GENERAL TABLE.

1. THE SOVEREIGN.—It is hardly necessary to remind the reader, that as the monarch is the highest personage in the realm, no one takes precedence of him. The king or the queen regnant is always, and in all respects, superior to any subject, and his or her position exemplifies more clearly than that of any other person the real meaning of the term Precedence. Common observation is sufficient to inform the reader, when considering the precedence of the sovereign, that on many occasions propinquity to the place of greatest honour is regulated by a reversed scale to that of numerical precedence, and though apparently a contradiction in terms, it is true, that persons of greatest dignity do not strictly precede those of less consideration and importance. Thus in many state-processions it is well known that the position occupied by royalty is not by any means the first in numerical order; but wherever the Sovereign is placed, from that point radiate the gradations of dignity and rank, and by propinquity to that centre is regulated the whole complicated machinery of etiquette and precedence. Therefore in any scale the Sovereign is not so much to be regarded as having a specific personal rank, but as constituting and establishing by his own position the source from which all dignity shall spring. Many officers of state on ceremonial occasions actually go before His Majesty, without thereby negativing the royal title to precedence, or acquiring for themselves any increase of dignity or rank. Whatever position therefore the Sovereign occupies, that is ipso facto the first place with reference to all precedence, though it may be far from first in numerical point of view.

2. Prince of Wales.—The Prince of Wales has been at all times regarded as the first subject in the realm—the nearest to the throne—the most dignified of the peers of parliament, and, though not exercising any political power beyond his vote as a legislator, yet regarded by all men as the most eminent personage in the state next after the Sovereign; the Prince of Wales is the heir apparent; the heir presumptive may be brother, uncle, nephew, niece, or even a more distant relative of the Sovereign; but the prospect which an heir presumptive may possess of eventually succeeding to the throne gives him no place in the scale of precedency; the rank he holds is merely derived from consanguinity. But the station of Prince of Wales is clearly and indisputably that of the first and highest of the Sovereign's subjects.

3. Younger Sons of the Sovereign.—The second son of the reigning monarch takes rank next after the eldest, and all the younger sons take precedence amongst each other according to priority of birth. They usually receive peerages as soon as they become of age; and in the House of Lords they would of course rank above all other peers, and take precedence amongst each other according to the dates of their respective patents; for example, if the fifth son received his dukedom previous to the fourth, then the younger would in all proceedings of the Upper House take precedence of the elder: but this sort of anomaly is not likely to occur; for the practice is, to grant the peerages in the order of primogeniture, so that the precedence of those princes in the House of Lords should coincide with their stations in all other assemblies.

4. Eldest Son of the Heir Apparent.—The eldest son of the Prince of Wales takes precedence of any other grandson of the Sovereign, and follows the youngest son of his grandparent the Sovereign, as was settled in the case of Edward Duke of York, second son of Frederick Prince of Wales, and grandson of George II., in 1760, of the late Duke of Clarence in 1890, and of the Duke of York in 1892.

5. Grandsons of the Sovereign.—Established usage gives the grandsons of the Sovereign this position. The rule appears to be, that every one who could in any event succeed to the throne, takes precedence of these subjects who, during his lifetime, are incapable of such succession.

6. Brothers of the Sovereign.—In the royal family the first class are the sons of the monarch, the second his grandsons, etc.; then follow his brothers, his nephews, his uncles, etc. Thus the next brother to the king might be at one time the first subject in the realm; but if the king should marry and have seven sons, the brother then would take the eighth place: he might also live to follow fifteen or sixteen of his grand-nephews; but one of these might succeed to the throne, marry, have sons, and so remove his grand-uncle still further from the highest point: it frequently happens, therefore, that as a royal duke grows older he sinks in the scale of precedence.]

7. Uncles of the Sovereign.—A royal duke may be in one reign the son of the king; in the next reign he may become brother to the Sovereign; in the next, uncle to the monarch; and in the following reign, grand-uncle. In the first of these cases he belongs to the highest rank, in the next he falls into the second grade, and finally into the third. Every member of the royal family capable of succeeding to the throne retains an acknowledged superiority over other subjects, but the rank that he holds amongst his own relatives is altered every time a new reign commences.

8. Nephews of the Sovereign.—These proceed in the following order:—1st, such of the monarch's nephews as are the sons of his next brother; 2ndly, the sons of his second brother; then those of his third brother, and so on according to the seniority of their respective fathers; the sons of each father, of course, taking precedence amongst each other according to priority of birth. The sons of the eldest sister of the Sovereign follow those of his youngest brother, taking rank amongst each other according to the usual rule of priority of birth; the sons of each sister enjoying precedence according to the seniority of their respective mothers.

9. Archbishop of Canterbury.—After many contests between the Archbishops of Canterbury and of York, it was decided by King Edward III. in 1352 that the former should always enjoy precedence over the latter; and this decision has ever since remained in force. Both were always entitled to go before dukes.

10. Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain.—The act of Henry VIII respecting precedence, enacts that the Lord High Chancellor shall, if a baron or above that degree, take precedence next after the Archbishop of Canterbury. This officer is ex-officio President of the Court of Appeal of the High Court of Justice. The Lord Chancellor of Ireland is not always raised to the peerage, but in modern times that honour has been invariably conferred on the Lord Chancellor of Great Britain. No provision is made by Act of Parliament for the precedence in England of any of the great officers of state either of Scotland or Ireland; but at the coronation of William IV the Lord Chancellor of Ireland (Lord Plunket) walked immediately next to the Lord Chancellor of Great Britain.

11. Archbishop of York.—Until the 31st of Henry VIII this prelate ranked next to the Archbishop of Canterbury, but the act passed in that year regarding precedence placed the Lord Chancellor between the two archbishops.

12. The Premier.—By royal warrant dated Dec., 1905.

13. Archbishop of Armagh.—This prelate, under the fourth article of the Act of Union, took rank next to the Archbishop of York; and upon the disestablishment of the Irish Church it was enacted by the Irish Church Act that every Archbishop, etc., then living should, during his life, enjoy the same title and precedence. See Clerical Precedence.

14. Archbishop of Dublin.—This prelate has ways taken precedence next after the Archbishop of Armagh, and the Act of Union placed him immediately before the Lord High Treasurer; see preceding article.

15. Lord High Treasurer.—This is the position which the law assigns to the Lord High Treasurer, whenever there happens to be such an officer. The modern practice is to appoint certain commissioners for the performance of the duties of this office who are usually called "Lords of the Treasury," but who have no special rank in right of their offices. At present, therefore, there is no one to enjoy this position in the scale of precedence.

16. Lord President of the Privy Council.—In modern times the President of the Council is usually a member of the House of Peers. He enjoys the place here assigned to him, provided he be of the degree of a baron or above it; but as none of lower degree has ever been appointed to the office, this has always been his place.

17. Lord Privy Seal.—The rule which applies to No. 16 is equally applicable to the present case. This is the position of the Lord Privy Seal, provided he be of the degree of a baron or higher.

18. Lord Great Chamberlain.—The person who fills the office of Great Chamberlain does not occupy this position in the scale of precedence unless he happens to be a duke. If a marquess, he takes precedence of all other marquesses; if an earl, viscount, or baron, of all others of his own degree. But this precedence is strictly official. By a private Act of Parliament, 1 Geo. I. cap. 3, the place to which this officer was entitled under the 31st of Henry VIII, cap. 10, is declared thenceforth to be only held while he is in the actual execution of his office. From 1838 to 1870 the office was filled jointly by the Marquess of Cholmondeley and Lord Willoughby De Eresby, and they therefore had different positions in consequence of differing in the rank of their peerages, while neither of them took the position indicated by this article, though if either had at any time received a dukedom, this would be his place.

19. Lord High Constable.—At present there is no such officer as Lord High Constable, but whenever the Crown appoints one, this is his place, supposing him to be a duke; if of any lower rank, his place would be at the head of all of his own degree. Vide No. 31, No. 42, No. 55, and No. 71.

20. Earl Marshal.—The present Earl Marshal, the Duke of Norfolk, happens to be the premier duke of England, but any duke holding the office would take precedence of all other dukes, and, if he belonged to any lower rank in the peerage, would precede all of his own degree. Vide No. 32, and No. 43.

21. Lord High Admiral.—There is at present no Lord High Admiral: the duties of the office are performed by commissioners; but whenever the Crown appoints a Lord High Admiral, he takes precedence of all dukes, as well as of the two great officers next mentioned in this table.

22. Lord Steward of the Household.—As to this office, the rank which it imparts to its holder is not uniformly that of placing him above all dukes, but merely that of placing him above all who belong to the same rank in the peerage which he enjoys. Vide No. 33, No. 44, No. 56, and No. 72.

23. Lord Chamberlain of the Household.—If this great officer be a duke, he takes the precedence here assigned to him; and, if of lower rank, he precedes all others of the same degree. Vide No. 34, No. 45, No. 57, and No. 73.

23*a*. Master of the Horse, if of the rank of a duke; if of lower rank he precedes all others of the same degree. Vide No. 34*a*, No. 45*a*, No. 57*a*, No. 73*a*, and No. 84.

24. Dukes of England.—All dukes of England whose titles were created before the year 1707, take rank immediately after No. 23, each according to the antiquity of his patent of creation; thus the Duke of Norfolk is the first, and the Duke of Rutland the last in this class. The former, however, as Earl Marshal, enjoys a higher position.

25. Dukes of Scotland.—By the 23rd article in the treaty of union between England and Scotland, which was confirmed by the 5th of Anne, cap. 8, all Dukes of Scotland were granted precedence next after English dukes; that is to say, that the English dukedoms were to be considered superior to the Scottish dukedoms; therefore, the Duke of Hamilton, whose title was conferred in 1643, sixty years earlier than the Duke of Rutland's, nevertheless follows that peer. All other Dukes of Scotland, however, follow each other according to the respective antiquity of their patents. Since the period of the Union (1707), no Scottish dukedoms have been created; therefore every duke created between 1707 and the present time, is of lower station than any of the six Scottish dukes.

26. Dukes of Great Britain.—This denomination includes those which were created between the periods of the Scottish and Irish unions; namely, from 1707 till 1801. Of these the Duke of Portland was the earliest creation, and is therefore the highest of this class, while the Duke of Northumberland is the lowest. The Duke of Portland follows the last Scottish duke (Roxburghe), and thence the order proceeds according to the date of the patents, till we reach the Duke of Northumberland, whose title was conferred in 1766.

27. Dukes of Ireland.—The only Irish dukedom in existence at the time of the Union was that of Leinster, which was created antecedently to the Union. By the Act uniting the two countries, it was declared that the peers of Ireland should take precedence next after those of a like degree in Great Britain. In the year 1801, the junior British duke was his Grace of Northumberland: the Dukes of Leinster therefore take precedence next to the Dukes of Northumberland. During the present century, several dukes of Great Britain have been created, all of whom, of course, follow the Duke of Leinster; but the only Irish duke who has since that been created, namely, the Duke of Abercorn, does not take precedence immediately after the Duke of Leinster: on the contrary, he follows the junior duke (at that time) of Great Britain, namely, the Duke of Cleveland; for it is only the Irish peerages actually existing at the time of the Union, which enjoy the kind of precedence possessed by the Duke of Leinster.

28. Dukes of the United Kingdom.—This class includes the several dukes created since 1801, of whom the Duke of Wellington was the first; and, according to the general rule, these take precedence in conformity with the dates of their respective patents.

29. Eldest Sons of Dukes of the Blood Royal.—When these do not happen to be brothers, uncles, grandsons, or nephews of the reigning Sovereign, their places are not regulated by any clause of the Act of Henry VIII; and for their precedence we must fall back upon earlier authority. The position indicated by this number (29) was that assigned to them in the year 1399, in an ancient table of precedence now preserved in the College of Arms, to which much weight is attached as an evidence of long-continued usage.

30. Lord Great Chamberlain, when of the rank of a marquess; vide No. 18 antea.

31. Lord High Constable, when of the rank of a marquess; vide No. 19 antea.

32. Earl Marshal, when of the rank of a marquess; vide No. 20 antea.

33. Lord Steward of the Household, when of the rank of a marquess; vide No. 22 antea.

34. Lord Chamberlain of the Household, when of the rank of a marquess; vide No. 23 antea.

34*a*. Master of the Horse, when of the rank of a marquess ; vide No. 23*a*.

35. Marquesses of England created before the Scottish Union.—Of this class there is only one now in existence, viz. the Marquessate of Winchester.

36. Marquesses of Scotland.—Of these the Marquess of Huntly is the senior, and the Marquess of Lothian the junior. In conformity with the 23rd article of the Treaty of Union, all Scottish marquesses whose patents are dated antecedently to that event (1707) take precedence of all others of like degree, excepting those English marquesses whose patents are of earlier date.

37. Marquesses of Great Britain.—This class of peers enjoy titles which are dated between the years 1707 and 1801 ; and the oldest marquessate, viz. that of Lansdowne, follows the last of the Scottish Marquesses.

38. Marquesses of Ireland.—The Act of Union (passed in 1800) between Great Britain and Ireland declares, that all peers of Ireland shall thenceforward be peers of Great Britain, and take precedence next after those of a like degree. The Marquess of Bute is the junior of those British marquesses whose patents were granted before the Irish union, he therefore precedes the senior Irish marquess ; there then follow seven Irish marquesses, of whom Lord Ely is the last.

39. Marquesses of the United Kingdom.—The several peers of this degree whose titles were created subsequent to that of the Marquess of Ely, viz. after the Irish Union, constitute the marquesses of the United Kingdom ; and they occupy this position in the general scale, while inter se they rank according to the dates of their respective patents, whether their peerages belong to Great Britain or to Ireland ; the Act of Union declares that all peers of Ireland, whose titles shall be created after the statute came into force, shall take rank and precedence as if they were peers of the United Kingdom, and had seats in the hereditary branch of the legislature.

40. Dukes' Eldest Sons.—This class of nobles rank above earls, and take precedence amongst each other according to the dates of their fathers' patents. The place thus assigned is not granted in conformity with the provisions of any Act of Parliament, but in compliance with established usage, which can be distinctly traced to the year 1399. All the complex relations which subsist between dukes of England, of Scotland, of Great Britain, of Ireland, and of the United Kingdom, are equally in force as regards their issue ; and in order to ascertain the exact position of an individual member of No. 40, it is only necessary to fix the position of his father among dukes ; and then it will be seen that the eldest son of any given duke will follow all eldest sons of such other dukes as his father himself follows. Thus the paternal rank is the regulating influence among the different members of this class, and has already been detailed, while as a body they occupy the position which the number at the head of this article denotes. The scale of precedents which places a duke's eldest son after all marquesses is in strict analogy with the limitations affecting the assumption of courtesy titles ; for the former usually enjoys by courtesy the title of marquess, which the latter possesses in his own right, and even when there exists in the duke's family no marquessate for the sons to assume, nevertheless (although perhaps only a titular baron) he is a courtesy marquess as far as precedence is concerned.

41. Lord Great Chamberlain, when of the rank of an earl ; vide No. 18.

42. Lord High Constable, when of the rank of an earl ; vide No. 19.

43. Earl Marshal, when of the rank of an earl ; vide No. 20.

44. Lord Steward of the Household, when of the rank of an earl ; vide No. 22.

45. Lord Chamberlain of the Household, when of the rank of an earl ; vide No. 23.

45*a*. Master of the Horse, when of the rank of an earl ; vide No. 23*a*.

46. Earls of England.—This class includes all earls whose patents are dated antecedently to 1707, the period of the union with Scotland. Of these the Earl of Shrewsbury is the first, and Earl Poulett the last.

47. Earls of Scotland.—By the Treaty of Union between England and Scotland, all Scottish peers became peers of Great Britain, with rank next after English peers of the like degree, but taking precedence amongst each other according to the dates of their patents. The Earl of Crawford is the first of this class, and the Earl of Hopetoun the last. The patent of the Earl Poulett bears date in 1706, and that of the Earl of Crawford in 1398 : the effect, however, of the union has been to give precedence to the former over the latter ; but all earls created since 1707 follow the whole body of the Scottish earls, and of course take rank amongst each other in the usual manner, according to the dates of their respective patents.

48. Earls of Great Britain are those created between 1707, the year of the Scottish Union, and 1801, when that with Ireland took place. In the scale of precedence, they follow the whole of the Scottish earls, and precede all the Irish earls. Of this class the Earl Ferrers is the first, and the Earl of Malmesbury the last.

49. Earls of Ireland are of two classes ; one created before the Union (1801), and the other since that event. By the Act which united the two countries it was declared that peers of Ireland should be peers of Great Britain, and should take rank in England next after those of a like degree, enjoying precedence amongst each other according to the usual rule—date of patent. The first of this class is the Earl of Cork ; he therefore, in the scale of precedence, comes next to the Earl of Malmesbury, who is the junior of the British earls. The most recently created of the Irish earls at the time of the Union was the Earl of Kenmare ; he is, therefore, the last, and the Earl of Cork is the first of the body of Irish earls whom the Act of Union added to the earls of Great Britain. The earls of Ireland created since the Union come into the next class.

50. Earls of the United Kingdom are those created since England, Scotland, and Ireland formed one United Kingdom ; the Earl of Rosslyn being the first, and the Earl of Liverpool the last, Within that period, however, twelve Irish earldoms have been created, the possessors of which do not rank amongst the body of older Irish earls, existing previous to the Union, but are, according to dates of patents, intermingled amongst the United Kingdom earls, all of whom, as already mentioned, were created within the present century. The difference between an earl in the peerage of Ireland and one in the peerage of the United Kingdom is, that the latter has a seat in the Upper House, and the other has not, at least in right of his earldom, though he may possess that advantage if he be likewise a British viscount or baron, or a representative peer. As regards precedence, all peers, whether of Ireland or of the United Kingdom, if created since the Union, take rank amongst each other according to the dates of their respective patents.

51. Younger Sons of Dukes of the Blood Royal.—When these do not happen to fall within the provisions of the act of Henry VIII, which refers to the brothers uncles, grandsons, and nephews of the reigning Sovereign, they must rest for their precedence upon usage, which can be distinctly traced, by a record of great authority (now preserved in the College of Arms), as far back as the year 1485, and which gives them the place here assigned under the number 50.

52. Eldest Sons of Marquesses.—The precedence of the eldest son of a marquess does not rest upon patent, or Order in Council, or statute, but on that which is of equal force—immemorial usage, evidenced by the orders of the Constable of England in the year 1467, made "according to auncient statutes." As a body, their position is that which their number (52) indicates, while inter se the precedence of their respective fathers regulates the rank of the sons, as has already been explained with reference to dukes' eldest sons at No. 40.

53. Younger Sons of Dukes.—This place is assigned to the younger sons of dukes upon the authority of a decree pronounced by the commissioners for executing the office of Earl Marshal, in the reign of Elizabeth, 16th Jan., 1594. In accordance with the rules already referred to, the members of this class, however, take rank inter se in accordance with the relative precedence of their respective fathers.

54. Lord Great Chamberlain, when of the rank of a viscount; vide No. 18.

55. Lord High Constable, when of the rank of a viscount; vide No. 19.

56. Lord Steward of the Household, when of the rank of a viscount; vide No. 22.

57. Lord Chamberlain of the Household, when of the rank of a viscount; vide No. 23.

57*a*. Master of the Horse, when of the rank of a viscount; vide No. 23*a*.

58. Viscounts of England.—The same rule applies to these as to the higher ranks of the peerage. The class now under consideration are those whose titles were granted antecedently to the union with Scotland, and they are extinct save one, the viscounty of Hereford. The peer who holds that dignity is, of course, the premier viscount of the realm.

59. Viscounts of Scotland.—As in the cases of earls, marquesses, and dukes, the Scottish viscounts take precedence immediately after the English created before the Union; Viscount Falkland being the first, and Viscount Strathallan the last. Of course, amongst each other they follow the usual rule, viz. date of patent.

60. Viscounts of Great Britain.—These were created between 1707, the period of the Scottish Union, and 1801, that of the union with Ireland; they are therefore preceded, first, by the one English viscount, and 2ndly, by the Scottish viscounts. This rule is founded, like all others of a similar kind, upon the provisions of the Treaty of Union. The first of this class is Viscount Bolingbroke, the last is Viscount Hood.

61. Viscounts of Ireland.—These are peers of Ireland created before the Union, and by the Act which affected that great change they became peers of Great Britain, with "precedence next after other peers of a like degree." The first of the number is Viscount Gormanston; the last, Viscount Avonmore. Amongst each other, they follow the general rule of taking rank according to the dates of patents.

62. Viscounts of the United Kingdom constitute that portion of the peerage which has been created since 1801. In the scale of precedence, several Irish viscounts (created since the Union) are intermingled with them, according to dates of patent, on principles already explained.

63. Eldest Sons of Earls.—It is not under any distinct written authority that the eldest sons of earls hold this place, but by immemorial usage, which can be distinctly traced at least to the year 1399. Collectively, their position is indicated by the number 63, while individually the rank of their respective parents regulates the precedence of the children inter se.

64. Younger Sons of Marquesses hold this rank by immemorial usage, in like manner as the sons of dukes and earls possess theirs, and in the same way their fathers' precedence among marquesses regulates theirs amongst the issue of marquesses.

65. The Bishop of London is here placed by the statute of Henry VIII. There is some ground for supposing that antecedently to the passing of that Act he occupied a different position, but there cannot now be any doubt as to the place which ought to be given to this prelate.

66. Bishop of Durham.—The same statute (that of Henry VIII) which determines the precedence of the Bishop of London fixes that also of the Bishop of Durham.

67. The Bishop of Winchester.— By the constitution of the Order of the Garter, it was declared that the prelate of that Order should always take precedence of every other bishop. From the foundation of the Order to the present time, with the exception of a few months in the year 1553, this office has always been held by the bishops of Winchester; therefore the holders of this see have uniformly enjoyed precedence over all bishops, excepting those of London and Durham, who in the 31st of Henry VIII were placed above them by the Act passed in that year regulating precedence.

68. English Bishops.—So many generations have passed away since a bishop was a Secretary of State, that it may be scarcely worth while to call attention to the fact, that the 31st of Henry VIII provides, if a prelate should be a principal Secretary of State, that he shall take precedence of all his brethren, unless some of them hold one of the ten offices already mentioned, which give a precedence over dukes. Bishops precede all temporal barons; and the general rule is that they shall take rank amongst each other according to priority of consecration, and not in right of privileges attaching to each see. The exceptions are, as already stated, that the Bishops of London, Durham, and Winchester, enjoy rank superior to any other member of the episcopal body.

69. Other Metropolitans in the Anglican Communion according to their dates of consecration (see Clerical Precedence).

70. Lord Great Chamberlain, if of the rank of a baron; vide No. 18.

71. Lord High Constable, if of the rank of a baron; vide No. 19.

72. Lord Steward of the Household, if of the rank of a baron; vide No. 22.

73. Lord Chamberlain of the Household, if of the rank of a baron; vide No. 23.

73*a*. Master of the Horse, if of the rank of a baron; vide No. 23*a*.

74. Secretary of State.—If the office be filled by a baron, he takes precedence of all peers of that degree: but the rule does not hold beyond this rank, as the office does not exalt the precedence of a viscount, earl, marquess, or duke (Coke, Inst. 4–362). When below the degree of a baron, his rank is as at No. 86.

75. Barons of England.—These are peers sitting by writ or patent of earlier date than the Scottish Union, A.D. 1707.

76. Barons of Scotland.—The Treaty of Union between England and Scotland made provision that the barons of that country should take precedence next after those of a like degree in England, having rank amongst each other according to the antiquity of their titles. The first amongst this class is Lord Forbes, and the last Lord Polwarth.

77. Barons of Great Britain.—These are peers whose patents of creation bear date between the Scottish and Irish unions, namely, during the period from 1707 till 1801. They take rank after the Scottish, and before the Irish barons.

78. Barons of Ireland.—According to the Act of Union between Great Britain and Ireland, this class of peers takes precedence next after those of a like degree in England, at the time of the Union, and amongst each other, according to antiquity of creation.

79. Barons of the United Kingdom.—All

Barons created since 1801, when England, Scotland, and Ireland became one united kingdom. Amongst these, in order of precedence, several Irish barons are intermingled according to dates of patents, on principles already explained in Nos. 27 and 49. Life peers take rank with these according to dates of patents.

80. SPEAKER OF THE HOUSE OF COMMONS.—This position is enjoyed in right of ancient usage, confirmed incidentally by the words employed for fixing the place of No. 81 in the 1st of William and Mary, cap. 21.

81. COMMISSIONERS OF THE GREAT SEAL.—When the office of Lord High Chancellor is executed by commissioners, the persons to whom this great trust is confided become entitled, under the 1st of William and Mary, cap. 21, to precedence "next after the peers of this realm and the Speaker of the House of Commons." It need hardly be observed that this rank only belongs to such as have no higher claim to precedence in right of other offices, or in right of hereditary honours.

82. TREASURER OF THE HOUSEHOLD, is here placed under the authority of a royal warrant of Henry VIII, in the year 1540.

83. COMPTROLLER OF THE HOUSEHOLD, is here placed under the authority of a royal warrant, temp. Henry VIII.

84. MASTER OF THE HORSE.—In modern times the Master of the Horse to the King or Queen regnant, is generally a peer; he therefore never has occasion to avail himself of the precedence which belongs to his office.

85. VICE-CHAMBERLAIN OF THE HOUSEHOLD.—This officer is here placed on the authority of a warrant, temp. Henry VIII.

86. SECRETARY OF STATE.—When below the degree of a baron, the place here assigned to him is that given by a warrant of Henry VIII, in the year 1540, but when a Secretary of State is a baron, his place will be as described in No. 74.

87. ELDEST SONS OF VISCOUNTS are here placed in conformity with ancient usage, evidenced by the orders of the Constable of England in the year 1467, made "according to auncient statutes"; the relative precedence of their respective fathers settles their rank inter se.

88. YOUNGER SONS OF EARLS, on the same ground as No. 87, and under the same regulations as regards precedence inter se.

89. ELDEST SONS OF BARONS are placed upon the same authority as the above, namely, ancient usage.

90. KNIGHTS OF THE GARTER.—It very rarely happens that the members of this Order depend altogether for their rank upon the distinction which their knighthood confers, for the Knights Companions of the Garter generally belong to the highest classes of the peerage. One of the most recent instances of this distinction having been conferred on a British subject, not being a peer, was the case of the late Prince Consort. Between the period of his investiture with the Garter and the settlement of his rank by royal ordinance, this would have been his position. Respecting the precedence of other Orders of knighthood, there has occasionally been some uncertainty, but the rank enjoyed by Knights of the Garter is so clearly established by the statutes of the Order, that no doubts have arisen on the subject. The statute is dated April 23, 5th Charles I, 1629.

91. PRIVY COUNSELLORS are here placed under the authority of letters patent, dated 28 May, 10 James I, 1612. Amongst themselves this class, like all others, take rank according to seniority of appointment, when no other principle of precedence exists in the individual instances.

92. CHANCELLOR OF THE ORDER OF THE GARTER.—On the 23rd of April, 1629, it was ordained by Charles I, that this officer should hold the rank here assigned him, provided he was a layman; but from 1475 to 1485, and from 1669 to the present time, the office has been always held by a bishop, who enjoyed a higher rank in right of his see. In the intermediate period, however, viz. from 1629 to 1669, this statute regulating precedence had a practical utility, and if at any future time the office should be appropriated to a layman, it would again come into force.

93. THE CHANCELLOR OF THE EXCHEQUER holds this position under the authority of letters patent, dated 28 May, 10 James I, 1612: but if he be a Peer or a Privy Counsellor, of course he ranks in those classes.

94. THE CHANCELLOR OF THE DUCHY OF LANCASTER, on the same ground as No. 93; but if a Peer or Privy Counsellor, of course according to his place in those classes.

95. THE LORD CHIEF JUSTICE OF ENGLAND, on the same ground as No. 93; but if a Peer or Privy Counsellor, of course according to his place in those classes.

96. MASTER OF THE ROLLS, on the same ground as No. 93, and if a Peer, with a similar exception in his favour as in the case of the Lord Chief Justice.

97. THE LORDS JUSTICES OF APPEAL.—When the Court of Appeal in Chancery was constituted, in 1851, the Lord Justices were granted this precedence, and this place was confirmed to the Lords Justices of the Court of Appeal created by the Judicature Acts 1873 and 1875, according to seniority of appointment, but when Peers or Privy Counsellors, they rank accordingly.

98. JUDGES OF THE HIGH COURT OF JUSTICE are usually Knights Bachelor, and rank according to seniority of appointment, but the President of the Probate Div. being, ex officio, a Member of the Court of Appeal, takes rank accordingly.

99. KNIGHTS BANNERET, created under the royal standard displayed in open war, the Sovereign or the Prince of Wales being present. They would take rank amongst each other according to seniority of creation.

100. YOUNGER SONS OF VISCOUNTS are here placed under the authority of letters patent, dated 28 May, 10 James I, and rank according to the precedence of their respective fathers.

101. YOUNGER SONS OF BARONS have this place assigned them by a decree of James I.

102. SONS OF LIFE PEERS AND OF LIFE PEERS DECEASED were here placed by Royal favour in 1897, but the warrant was not gazetted until August, 1898. This would seem to be an infringement of 103, and has been challenged by the Society of the Baronetage accordingly.

103. BARONETS.—On a controversy of precedence between the younger sons of Viscounts and Barons and the Baronets, King James I, in 1612, issued a decree, fixing the precedence of the latter next after the former. By this decree the King bound himself, his heirs, and successors not at any time to give precedence to any persons beneath the degree of Lords of Parliament, higher before or equal to the place of baronets, and a similar provision is to be found in the baronets' patents of creation. Baronets conform to the general rule of taking precedence amongst each other according to the dates of their patents respectively. But no provision is made in the Act of Union, either with Scotland or Ireland, for the precedence of the baronets of those countries in England. Analogy with the orders made respecting the peerage, however, would make the succession to be—1st, Baronets of England whose patents are dated before 1707; 2nd, Baronets of Scotland or Nova Scotia (the order in Scotland having been created by Charles I for the advancement of that Colony); 3rd, Baronets of Great Britain whose patents are dated before 1801; 4th, Baronets of Ireland; 5th, Baronets of the United Kingdom.

104. KNIGHTS BANNERET, provided they be not made in the manner described at No. 99. This position was allotted to such as were created by the commanders of armies in the king's name on the open field of battle.

105. KNIGHTS OF THE THISTLE.—The Order of the Thistle is scarcely ever conferred on any but Scottish nobles of very high rank, and of course they take precedence according to their peerages. The statutes of the Order are silent respecting precedence, and there do not appear to be any Acts of Parliament, royal ordinances, or letters patent, on the subject. In the absence of these authorities, the natural course is to place the orders according to priority of institution or revival.

106. KNIGHTS OF ST. PATRICK.—This Order has never been, and probably never will be, conferred upon a commoner. Its right, therefore, to the place here assigned it in the scale of precedence is not likely to be soon decided. The warrant under which the Order was instituted, declares that in Ireland the Knights of St. Patrick shall take precedence immediately after the eldest sons of barons. It has been sometimes supposed that the warrant gave them this rank in England, which would amount to granting them precedence over the Knights of the Garter. This document does not abrogate any statute of the Order of the Garter; and nothing is more evident than that the Sovereign never intended to place the Irish Order above the more ancient and illustrious fraternities of England and Scotland. It is a position clearly established, that baronets shall come next after the younger sons of barons, and that no knight in respect of his knighthood (except those of the Order of the Garter together with certain bannerets), shall be entitled to precede a baronet. As the general rule then is that knights come after baronets, the several Orders of knighthood have been placed, as already stated, according to priority of institution or revival.

107. KNIGHTS GRAND CROSS OF THE BATH are declared by the 19th statute of the Order, made in pursuance of letters patent dated 14th April, 1847, to have precedence "next to and immediately after Baronets"; a place clearly inconsistent with awarding the positions here given to Nos. 104, 105, and 106.

108. KNIGHTS GRAND COMMANDER OF THE STAR OF INDIA under the statute of the Order of 19th April, 1866.

109. KNIGHTS GRAND CROSS OF ST. MICHAEL AND ST. GEORGE under the statutes of the Order.

110. KNIGHTS GRAND COMMANDER OF THE INDIAN EMPIRE under the statute of the Order made in pursuance of letters patent dated 1st June, 1887.

111. KNIGHTS GRAND CROSS OF THE ROYAL VICTORIAN ORDER.

112. KNIGHTS GRAND CROSS OF THE BRITISH EMPIRE.

113. KNIGHTS COMMANDER OF THE BATH are here placed under the statute of the Order referred to in No. 107.

114. KNIGHTS COMMANDER OF THE STAR OF INDIA under the statutes of the Order.

115. KNIGHTS COMMANDER OF ST. MICHAEL AND ST. GEORGE under the statutes of the Order.

116. KNIGHTS COMMANDER OF THE INDIAN EMPIRE under the statute of the Order made in pursuance of letters patent dated 15th Feb. 1887.

117. KNIGHTS COMMANDER OF THE ROYAL VICTORIAN ORDER.

118. KNIGHTS COMMANDER OF THE BRITISH EMPIRE.

119. KNIGHTS BACHELOR.—By various patents and ordinances, as well as by Acts of Parliament, several classes in the state have been assigned precedence over Knights Bachelor, and though they are the most ancient order of knights, we find them at length moved downwards by successive changes to this rank in the scale of precedence.

120. COMMANDERS OF THE BATH.

121. COMMANDERS OF ST. MICHAEL AND ST. GEORGE.

122. COMMANDERS OF THE ROYAL VICTORIAN ORDER.

123. COMMANDERS OF THE BRITISH EMPIRE.

124. JUDGES OF COUNTY COURTS IN ENGLAND AND WALES AND JUDGES OF THE CITY OF LONDON COURT have precedence next after Knights Bachelors by royal warrant with the title of "His Honour" prefixed to the word "Judge" before their respective names.

125. SERJEANTS-AT-LAW.

126. MASTERS IN CHANCERY.

127. MASTERS IN LUNACY.

128. COMPANIONS OF THE STAR OF INDIA are here placed by the statutes of the Order.

129. COMPANIONS OF THE ORDER OF THE INDIAN EMPIRE under the statutes of the Order.

130. MEMBERS OF THE 4TH CLASS OF THE ROYAL VICTORIAN ORDER.

131. OFFICERS OF THE BRITISH EMPIRE.

132. COMPANIONS OF THE DISTINGUISHED SERVICE ORDER under the statutes of the Order.

133. COMPANIONS OF THE IMPERIAL SERVICE ORDER.

134. GENTLEMEN OF THE PRIVY CHAMBER.

135. ELDEST SONS OF THE YOUNGER SONS OF PEERS are here placed under the authority of an ordinance of the Earl Marshal's Court, dated 18th of March, 1615.

136. ELDEST SONS OF BARONETS are here placed under authority of the ordinance of the Earl Marshal's Court.

137. ELDEST SONS OF KNIGHTS OF THE GARTER are here placed on the ground of ancient usage, which is confirmed by implication in the ordinance of the Earl Marshal's Court already referred to. In modern times, they enjoy however a superior place, inasmuch as their fathers are always peers; and the hereditary nobility, therefore, yields them a higher position than that springing from the personal honour of knighthood.

138. ELDEST SONS OF KNIGHTS BANNERET, on the same ground as No. 137; the usage can be distinctly traced as far back as the year 1399.

139. ELDEST SONS OF THE KNIGHTS OF THE THISTLE, on the same ground as No. 105.

140. ELDEST SONS OF KNIGHTS GRAND CROSS OF THE BATH, on the same ground as No. 133 taken in connexion with the new statutes of the Order; and, inter se, they rank according to the seniority of their respective fathers in the Order of the Bath.

141. ELDEST SONS OF KNIGHTS GRAND COMMANDER OF THE STAR OF INDIA.

142. ELDEST SONS OF KNIGHTS GRAND CROSS OF ST. MICHAEL AND ST. GEORGE.

143. ELDEST SONS OF KNIGHTS GRAND COMMANDER OF THE INDIAN EMPIRE.

144. ELDEST SONS OF KNIGHTS GRAND CROSS OF THE ROYAL VICTORIAN ORDER.

145. ELDEST SONS OF KNIGHTS GRAND CROSS OF THE BRITISH EMPIRE.

146. ELDEST SONS OF KNIGHTS COMMANDER OF THE BATH, on the same ground as No. 136.

147. ELDEST SONS OF KNIGHTS COMMANDER OF THE STAR OF INDIA.

148. ELDEST SONS OF KNIGHTS COMMANDER OF ST. MICHAEL AND ST. GEORGE are here placed, on the ground that the general practice with respect to precedence gives to the descendants of titled persons a station amongst each other, analogous to that enjoyed by their fathers.

149. ELDEST SONS OF KNIGHTS COMMANDER OF THE INDIAN EMPIRE.

150. ELDEST SONS OF KNIGHTS COMMANDER OF THE ROYAL VICTORIAN ORDER.

151. ELDEST SONS OF THE KNIGHTS COMMANDER OF THE BRITISH EMPIRE.

152. ELDEST SONS OF COMMANDERS OF THE BATH.

153. ELDEST SONS OF COMMANDERS OF ST. MICHAEL AND ST. GEORGE.

154. ELDEST SONS OF COMMANDERS OF THE ROYAL VICTORIAN ORDER.

155. Eldest Sons of Commanders of the British Empire.

156. Eldest Sons of Knights Bachelor are here placed under the authority of letters patent temp. James I.

157. Members of the 5th Class of the Royal Victorian Order.

158. Members of the Order of the British Empire.

159. Younger Sons of the Younger Sons of Peers hold this place by usage.

160. Younger Sons of Baronets are here placed on the same ground as No. 148.

161. Younger Sons of Knights of the Garter, on the same ground as No. 137.

162. Younger Sons of Knights Banneret, on the same ground as No. 138.

163. Younger Sons of Knights Grand Cross of the Bath.

164. Younger Sons of Knights Grand Commander of the Star of India.

165. Younger Sons of Knights Grand Cross of St. Michael and St. George.

166 Younger Sons of Knights Grand Commander of the Indian Empire.

167. Younger Sons of Knights Commander of the Bath, on the same ground as No. 140.

168. Younger Sons of Knights Commander of the Star of India.

169. Younger Sons of Knights Commander of St. Michael and St. George, on the same ground as their elder brothers.

170. Younger Sons of Knights Commander of the Indian Empire.

171. Younger Sons of Knights Commander of the Royal Victorian Order.

172. Younger Sons of Knights Commanders of the British Empire.

173. Younger Sons of Commanders of the Bath.

174. Younger Sons of Commanders of St. Michael and St. George.

175. Younger Sons of Commanders of the Royal Victorian Order.

176. Younger Sons of Commanders of the British Empire.

177. Younger Sons of Knights Bachelor, on the same ground as No. 156.

178. Doctors in Divinity, on the ground of ancient usage. It is by some authorities contended that Doctors of Universities rank on a par with knights, and above serjeants-at-law, Queen's counsel, deans, etc., and to support this it is cited that when Queen Elizabeth went in state to St. Paul's, the doctors were accorded this position.

179. Doctors of Laws, on the same ground as No. 178.

180. Doctors of Medicine, on the same ground as No. 178.

181. Bachelors of Divinity.—The degree of a bachelor in any of the faculties of divinity, law, or medicine is rarely obtained otherwise than as preparatory to the superior degree of doctor; and in divinity it generally happens that those who take a bachelor's degree are also in priest's orders; they have, therefore, the prefix of Reverend.

182. Bachelors of Laws, on the ground of ancient usage.

183. Bachelors of Medicine, on the same ground as No. 181.

184. Clergymen. Few things are more undefined than the precedence due to clergymen in general society. Of course it is well known that the precedence of the "faculties" is as follows: 1st, Divinity; 2nd, Law; 3rd, Medicine; 4th Music. But there is another consideration that imparts to this profession a temporal dignity, which is, that one member of it takes rank next to the royal family, that another takes precedence of all dukes, and that the twenty-seven senior English bishops are lords of parliament superior to barons. So many circumstances peculiar to individuals modify all general rules of precedence, that it is scarcely possible, in the absence of distinct authority from the King, as "the fountain of honour," to fix the position of all clergymen otherwise than by analogy. Chaplains in the Royal Navy, all of whom must be clergymen in connexion with the Church of England, do not hold any naval rank, but the regulations for that branch of the service enjoin that they "shall retain, when afloat, the position to which their office would entitle them when on shore." On the other hand, a definite position is laid down for chaplains in the Army, who comprise clergymen of the Church of England and of the Presbyterian and Roman Catholic Churches. (See Military Rank and Precedence.) It is not to be supposed that clergymen in general society are to take much lower ground than that accorded to military chaplains, though of course, as the possession of an army commission gives this definite rank, its absence leaves other clergymen to rest only upon analogy when placed in competition for precedence with civilians.

185. King's Counsel are placed above all other barristers in right of their patents.

186. Barristers are often stated to be esquires by ancient usage as well as by office, but this assertion lacks official recognition; but according to the rule of precedence in the profession, they are merely regarded as holding a position in the common law, somewhat analogous to that of the bachelor in the civil law: the serjeant in the one being regarded as of similar rank to the doctor in the other.

187. The following persons are entitled to the affix of "Esquire," which, however, carries with it no precedence.

1. Those who are so styled by the King in their patents, commissions or appointments.
2. Eldest sons of Baronets.
3. Eldest sons of Knights in perpetual succession.
4. It is held by some authorities also that eldest sons of younger sons of Peers and their eldest sons are also entitled, but this is doubtful.

188. Professional Gentlemen, as solicitors, attorneys, proctors, engineers, architects, medical practitioners, artists, literary men, merchants, master manufacturers, scientific professors, and others, not engaged in manual labour, farming of land, or retail trade, are considered to possess some station in society, although the law takes no cognizance of their ranks inter se.

189. Yeomen.

190. Tradesmen, being citizens.

191. Tradesmen, being burgesses.

KNIGHTLY PRECEDENCE.

The following tables have reference solely to the precedence enjoyed by the different members of each Order, when assembled in their knightly capacity at chapters, etc., for on such occasions many of the highest dignities fail to give their possessors precedence over a brother knight of an older creation, though in the common intercourse of society the rule be otherwise.

Knights Bachelor, whether created by the Sovereign (personally or by patent), or by the Lord-Lieutenant of Ireland, rank amongst each other according to seniority of creation.

JUDICIAL AND LEGAL PRECEDENCE.

Except as stated below, personal or hereditary distinctions are not recognized as titles to precedence in the profession of the law. One barrister does not lead, or enjoy pre-audience over another in right of being a peer, privy counsellor, knight, baronet, or the son of a peer. The following table presents the only ranks acknowledged by the courts of justice in England as conferring official precedence, with the exception of special patents, which the Crown may grant to any member of the profession.

1. The Lord Chancellor of Great Britain.
2. Peers entitled to hear appeals in the House of Lords, and the Lords of Appeal in Ordinary.
3. The Lord Chief Justice of England.
4. The Master of the Rolls.
5. The Lords Justices of Appeal, and the President of the Probate, Admiralty, and Divorce Division of the High Court according to seniority of appointment.

19. Vicars not of that degree.
20. Curates.

Prelates of the Church of Ireland, of the Roman Catholic Church in Ireland, and the Moderator of the Presbyterian Church have special rules of precedence, but they would only take such precedence in the general table by courtesy.

Bishops Suffragan when representing their diocesan within the diocese take the same precedence as their diocesan in ecclesiastical functions.

UNIVERSITY PRECEDENCE.

University degrees are those of Doctor, Master, and Bachelor.

The principal Faculties in which degrees are granted are: Arts, Divinity, Law, Medicine, and Science; degrees are also given in Letters, Music, Philosophy, Surgery, Agriculture and Engineering.

Persons of the same academical rank, and if of the same University, take precedence amongst each other according to the dates of their degrees. Those of the same rank who have graduated at different places, take rank according to the dates of foundation of the Universities to which they belong.

The following are the Universities of the United Kingdom, with the dates of their foundations:—

Oxford	uncertain.

11 Second Lieutenants.

By Royal Warrant dated December 11th, 1888, the "Commissariat and Transport Staff" was abolished, and its Officers were transferred to a Corps designated the "Army Service Corps," and were granted substantive and titular military rank. By another Royal Warrant, dated 16th June, 1896, the "Ordnance Store Department" was abolished, and a general department for the ordnance services of the Army was established, under the designation of "The Army Ordnance Department," the officers of which enjoy substantive military rank. The result of these changes is that the designations Commissary-General (Maj.-General), Deputy and Assistant Commissary-General (Colonel), and Deputy Assistant Commissary-General (Captain) have disappeared, except as applied to officers who were on the non-effective list previous to the provisions of these Warrants coming into operation. By Royal Warrant dated June 23rd, 1898, the title of Surgeon-Major-General was altered to that of Surgeon-General, and the officers of this rank alone were constituted the "Medical Staff" of the Army. The officers of the late Army Medical Staff, below the rank of Surgeon-Major-General, together with the Warrant Officers, Non-Commissioned Officers, and men of the Medical Staff Corps were formed into a corps styled "The Royal Army Medical Corps," and the officers were granted substantive and titular military rank. Consequent on the Royal Warrant of 9th Jan. 1907, Surgeon-Generals and Colonels are now shown as removed from the Royal Army Medical Corps, and the term Army Medical Staff became obsolete. By Royal Warrant dated August 10th, 1898, the alteration of ranks just described was extended to the officers of the Indian Medical Service. Consequently the compound titles of Surgeon-Major-General, Surgeon-Colonel, Brigade-Surgeon-Lieutenant-Colonel, Surgeon-Lieutenant-Colonel, Surgeon-Major Surgeon-Captain, and Surgeon-Lieutenant have disappeared in the Regular Army, except in the case of certain retired officers, of medical officers who were appointed to the regimental establishment of the Foot Guards previous to March 1904 and Medical Officers of the Household Cavalry. By Royal Warrant of February 16th, 1899, the Officers of the Army Pay Department were granted substantive rank, and by Royal Warrant dated 5th October, 1903, titular military rank was given to the Officers of the Army Medical Department,

Military officers in the service of the late Hon. East India Company used to enjoy the same precedence as those in the service of the Crown, only so long as they remained eastward of the Cape of Good Hope. West of the Cape they had no military rank whatever; but by an order of the 1st of May, 1885, it was settled no such distinction should be drawn and "in all parts of Her Majesty's dominions and elsewhere" they were declared to be entitled to rank and precedence with officers of the regular Army, according to the dates of their commissions. The subsequent extinction of the East India Company, and conversion of the forces into "Her Majesty's Indian Army," abolished all distinctions.

Officers of the Special Reserve and Yeomanry of the United Kingdom take rank with officers of the regular forces as the youngest of their degree, and take precedence amongst themselves according to the dates of appointment in their respective ranks.

Officers of the regular forces, Special Reserve and Yeomanry of the United Kingdom have precedence of, and command over, the officers of equal degree serving in the Honourable Artillery Company and Territorial Force, and officers of the Honourable Artillery Company and Territorial Force take precedence amongst themselves according to the dates of appointment in their respective ranks.

An officer of the Royal Malta Artillery takes rank and precedence below other officers of the regular forces of the same grade.

Honorary rank, as well as the substantive rank of departmental officers, carries the same precedence as the corresponding military rank except as regards general command and the presidency of Courts and Boards.

The following is the order of precedence of the several regiments and corps—

1. The Household Cavalry, consisting of the 1st and 2nd Life Guards, and the Royal Horse Guards (The Blues).

CORRESPONDING RANKS IN THE NAVY AND ARMY.

Different ranks in the Navy and Army happen so be designated by the same name, though there it in truth a wide distinction between them Thus a naval captain is of much higher station than a military captain, and so on of others. The subjoined is a synopsis of the authorized scale of relative rank, as prescribed by an Order in Council, but it should be understood that an officer of the Navy has no claim to assume the command of His Majesty's Land Forces on shore, nor can an officer of the Army assume the command of any of His Majesty's Squadrons or Ships.

1. Admirals of the Fleet rank with Field-Marshals.
2. Admirals, with Generals.
3. Vice-Admirals, with Lieutenant-Generals.
4. Rear-Admirals, with Major-Generals.
5. Commodores of the 1st and 2nd class, with Brigadier-Generals.

DIPLOMATIC PRECEDENCE.

Precedence amongst diplomatic agents is regulated by the 17th Act annexed to the general treaty of Congress signed at Vienna, June 9th 1815, and the Protocol No. 45, signed at the Conferences of Aix-la-Chapelle, November 21st, 1818. Under these regulations the following is the order—

1. Ambassadors, Legates, or Nuncios.
2. Envoys, Ministers, or other persons accredited to Sovereigns.
3. Ministers Resident.
4. Chargés d'Affaires accredited to Ministers for Foreign Affairs.

In each of these four classes rank is taken according to the date of the official notification of the agent's arrival, not his appointment. No superiority is possessed by diplomatic agents on extraordinary missions, nor in consequence of any relations of consanguinity, family alliance, or political connexion which may happen to subsist between their respective courts.

CONSULAR PRECEDENCE.

The following is a statement of the comparative rank of British Consular Officers in relation to the naval and military services of their own country, as prescribed by the "King's Regulations." These do not, however, confer privileges on the consuls in their relations with the naval or military officers of the foreign country in which they happen to reside; they apply only to the British service:—

Agents and Consuls-General rank with, but after, Rear-Admirals; or Major-Generals.

Consuls-General rank with, but after, Commodores; or Brigadier-Generals.

Consuls rank with, but after, Captains, R.N., of 3 years' standing; or Colonels in the Army, and before all other Captains, R.N.

Consular-Agents rank with, but after, Lieutenants, R.N., and Navigating Lieutenants of less than 8 years' standing; or Captains in the Army.

Among their colleagues at the port of their residence, consular officers take rank in accordance with the rules prescribed by the Congress of Vienna for diplomatic agents, viz. seniority according to official title and to priority of arrival. [Consuls-General in all cases take precedence of Consuls, and Consuls-General in Egypt and Zanzibar respectively take precedence of all flag officers.]

PRECEDENCE IN IRELAND.

The rules of precedence, observed at "His Majesty's Castle of Dublin" differ slightly from those which prevail in England. In the year 1849, on the occasion of Queen

Victoria's visit to Ireland, a place was assigned to the Roman Catholic Primate and to the Roman Catholic Archbishop of Dublin, next after and below the Archbishops of the then Established Church, and in 1902 precedence was granted to the Moderator of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Ireland along with Archbishops according to date of election.

By the enactments of the Irish Church Act, section 13, it is provided that every Irish Archbishop, etc., then living should, during his life, enjoy the same title and precedence as previously.

A further order, issued in 1885, declares that all the prelates of the Roman Catholic Church in Ireland are to rank inter se, according to dates of consecration or translation, with prelates of the Protestant Episcopal Church in Ireland, who are to have the precedence which belonged to prelates of the Established Church of Ireland before the passing of the Irish Church Act, 1869.

The orders and the degrees of Orders of Knighthood instituted since the publication of the above scale, will, of course, take precedence as in the General Table.

PRECEDENCE IN INDIA.

The Royal Warrant by which precedence is now regulated in British India, bears date December 10th, 1898, and was issued to supersede all other tables of precedence previously prescribed.

The comparative rank of officers of the Navy and Army is the same in India as it had always been in the European dominions of His Majesty (for the detail of which the reader is referred to the table on that subject); therefore, all officers not mentioned in the subjoined table, whose rank is regulated by comparison with rank in the Army, enjoy the same rank with reference to civil servants as is enjoyed by military officers of equal grades. All other persons, not mentioned in the following table, take rank according to general usage, the Governor-General in Council determining all disputes.

Precedence amongst women is regulated by the official, not the hereditary or personal rank of their husbands, with the exception of Peers' wives, and of ladies possessing precedence in England independently of their husbands, provided this be not below the daughters of Barons. Such ladies rank according to English rules inter se, and follow immediately after the wives of members of council at the presidencies in India.

Among the results of this as well as previous warrants are two, peculiar to India. The wives of Bishops, etc., have equal rank with their husbands; and the wives of Baronets or Knights of Orders have no rank whatever, although they are persons of title, unless their husbands hold an office of some kind, and even then they must take rank according to that office.

PRECEDENCE IN CANADA.

In the year 1868 official precedence in Canada was defined to be according to the following order, and was communicated to the then Governor-General, Lord Monck, by the Secretary of State for the Colonies, as approved by the Queen, and to be observed within the Dominion, then newly constituted:—

1. The Governor-General.
2. The Commander of the Troops within the Dominion, if a General, and the Commander of the Naval Forces on the North American Station, if an Admiral, their own relative rank to be determined by the Queen's Regulations.
3. The Lieutenant-Governors of Ontario, Quebec, Nova Scotia, and New Brunswick.
4. The Archbishops and Bishops of each Communion, according to seniority of consecration, and without regard to any titular distinction.
5. The members of the Cabinet, according to seniority.
6. The Speaker of the Senate.
7. The Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Canada.
8. The Chief Judges of the Courts of Law and Equity, according to seniority.
9. Privy Counsellors, who are not members of the Cabinet.
10. General Officers serving in the Dominion, and Admirals serving on the Station, not being in the chief command.
11. Other Officers commanding in the Dominion, or on the Station.
12. Members of the Senate.
13. The Speaker of the House of Commons.
14. Puisne Judges of the Supreme Court, according to seniority.
15. Puisne Judges of the Courts of Law and Equity, according to seniority. Retired Judges take precedence next after active Judges of their respective Courts.
16. Members of the House of Commons.
17. Members of the Executive Council (Provincial) within the Province.
18. Speaker of the Legislative Council within his province.
19. Members of the Legislative Council.
20. Speaker of Legislative Assembly.
21. Members of Legislative Assembly within their province.

PRECEDENCE AMONGST LADIES.

The rank of married women is derived from and corresponds to that of their husbands; but this rule admits of many exceptions, of which the following may be enumerated:—

A woman noble by birth does not lose her rank if she marries a commoner; but it is otherwise should she marry a peer, for then her precedence is regulated by that of her husband. Although daughters of dukes and marquises take place above the wives of barons, yet the daughter of the premier duke of England would sink to the rank of a baroness if she married a baron; if, however, she married a lord by courtesy, or any other commoner, or a bishop, her rank, precedence, and title would remain unchanged. The widow of a peer, baronet, or knight, may retain her title notwithstanding a second marriage; but in the case of the first and last mentioned, she does so only by courtesy; and strictly speaking, loses her precedence: it is, therefore, only those noble by birth who come within the limits of these observations. Nevertheless the widow of a peer marrying another peer as a 2nd husband (say a duchess dowager marrying a baron) retains the title and precedence springing from the first husband, and is still a duchess, marchioness, etc., as the case may be; for in this respect all the nobility are pares, and therefore such a second marriage is no degradation. (Blackstone, 1. 401; Coke, 2 Inst. 50.)

The widow of a baronet by a provision in a baronet's patent, however, enjoys her precedence for life, and by the same authority the widows of the eldest and younger sons of baronets retain for their own lives the precedence they gained by marriage.

That the official precedence of the husband is not communicable to the wife, forms the next exception; yet this, though all but universal, has its own limitations; for in India the reverse is almost wholly the rule of ladies' precedence; and even in this country, the wife of a lord mayor, or of the Lord-Lieutenant of Ireland, has a precedence derived from her husband's office.

The next exception is that of a married woman, who happens to be a peeress in her own right. She may through her husband hold a higher rank than that which belongs to her birth; but she does not lose her hereditary rank by one or more marriages, or by widowhood.

It is a general rule, that before marriage women have no titles or precedence otherwise than through their fathers; but, as stated above, their paternal distinctions cease if they marry peers, unless they should actually inherit a peerage. Several ranks intervene between the eldest and the other sons of the same father, but with the daughters it is otherwise; they, in point of precedence, are as one unbroken series, ranking amongst each other according to seniority, the eldest coming next to the wife of the eldest son (during the life of his father); and all of them several degrees above any of the wives of their younger brethren, provided those wives enjoy no distinctions by birth.

It is another general rule, that precedence acquired by marriage is never lost by the forfeiture of the husband. Thus, an earl may be attainted, but his wife remains a countess.

It is also a rule, that the rank enjoyed by a woman in her own right is incommunicable to her husband.

The foregoing statements are given as introductory to the subjoined table, without which a complete view of the rules affecting female precedence could not have been presented. The authorities on which this table has been arranged are not repeated here, having been already set forth in the general table of male precedence.

LOCAL PRECEDENCE.

By Warrant dated 18th February, 1904, as regards England and Wales, and by a subsequent Warrant in the same year as regards Ireland, His Majesty has declared that the Lord-Lieutenant of a County or Division of a County shall "during his term of office, and within the limits of his jurisdiction, have on all occasions place, pre-eminence, and precedence before the Sheriff having concurrent jurisdiction in the said County." (Similar provision is incorporated in the Scale of Precedence laid down for Scotland by Royal Warrant in 1905.)

By long-established precedent the Mayor, or in Scotland, the Provost, of any Town or City when within the limits of his jurisdiction, and when present in his official capacity, takes precedence of everybody, except members of the Royal Family.

PRECEDENCE OF FOREIGNERS IN ENGLAND

No foreigners whatever are entitled to precedence in this country, except they be members of the diplomatic body; but all foreigners enjoy by courtesy some share of distinction in mixed society. Mere hospitality to strangers is the foundation of this; but no rule or principle can be established on any titular analogies between foreign and English dignities: the cadets of families abroad often bear the titles of Prince, Duke, Count, or Baron, and occasionally receive in British society, on the strength of a mere nominal honour and its analogies, a place to which they are in no respect entitled. A foreign count is often really of lower position than an English country gentleman, and his wife is no countess in the English sense of that word. Each case requires to be investigated; and when the foreigner is found to be the head of a family in possession of its titular honours, the custom is to yield him the precedence enjoyed by envoys, viz. after dukes. It has long been the practice to yield to ambassadors and their wives the most distinguished place in society, and even the uncles or aunts of a sovereign, who are not themselves children of a king, have been required to yield the place to this high diplomatic character. Ambassadors are allowed at the Palace to precede all the peerage, and envoys to precede marquesses. But the extreme limit of hospitable courtesy is exceeded when ordinary titled foreigners, being heads of families, are allowed a higher place than envoys, and the cadets of foreign families possessed of titles have no claim to precede any British peer.

British subjects in possession of foreign titles by purchase of land or otherwise, have no right to precedence here on the strength of their foreign dignities; and with respect to all genuine foreigners, it is essential that their position in the land of their birth should be investigated before they are honoured with the place or precedence attached by law to British subjects. The analogies derived from that position, and not the nominal resemblances between their titles and ours, are the foundation of such rank as is yielded to distinguished foreigners at the court of the King.

NOTES ON THE INFERIOR TITLES OF LIVING PEERS

Every existing inferior title, whether borne by an eldest son or not, provided it differ in name from the superior title, will be found in its alphabetical position, with a reference to the head under which further particulars may be discovered; this will be found to answer, by a single search, all the questions for which the reader was previously in the habit of consulting a variety of books—as of second titles—of Peers sitting in the House of Lords by one title and commonly addressed by another, etc.

Before this Index was added to the other contents of the volume of 1851, it was impossible, in any work relating to the Peerage, to ascertain why and how some hundreds of well-known titles had disappeared. A few readers might imagine that they were extinct; others might conjecture that they had merged in higher honours. But by what superior titles they had been eclipsed, or where they were now to be found, no book could tell. Readers had asked themselves, "What has become of the Earl of Beverley?" No such name was to be found in the latest Peerage books. "Where is the Earl of Burlington, where the Earl of Mornington, Lord Seymour, Lord Panmure, Lord Glenlyon, Lord Barham, Lord King, Lord Cecil, Lord Ferrard, and other well-remembered persons?" Sometimes the courtesy titles borne by eldest sons might be expected to assist the reader in these difficulties. But they would help him in none of the instances above-mentioned, nor in a multitude of analogous cases, for peers of high degree often enjoy sixteen or seventeen inferior titles, while only one becomes known through the medium of an eldest son:—thus, the Duke of Atholl has 19; the Duke of Argyll, 17; the Duke of Hamilton, 16; the Marquess of Bute, 15; the Duke of Buccleuch 15; the Duke of Abercorn and the Marquess of Lansdowne, each 12; the Marquesses of Huntly and Lothian, each 11; the Duke of Montrose and the Earl of Wemyss, each 10; the Duke of Beaufort, 9; while smaller numbers occur in profusion throughout the Peerage. Nor can it be forgotten, that in the case of all Viscounts and Barons, the inferior or additional honours vested in them are never borne as courtesy titles by their issue. And even amongst the second titles actually used by eldest sons no certainty exists; thus the heir apparent of the Lansdowne family in alternate generations is styled Earl of Kerry; and then the well-known title of Shelburne disappears from view: an eldest son of the Marquess of Lothian has been called Lord Jedburgh instead of Earl of Ancrum, and there are upwards of twenty Peers whose heirs apparent or grandsons use titles which have no existence whatever amongst the family honours, or are only derived from these by indirect course or some modification of the real title, such as occurs in the cases of Lord Mahon, Lord Inverurie, Lord Trafalgar, Lord Corry, Lord Bingham, Lord Bertie, Lord Crichton, Lord Bennet, etc. Furthermore, many peers happen to have no male issue to enjoy these courtesy distinctions. At present nearly one hundred Peers are in this state without sons, a number which is more than one-third of the whole body possessed of the privilege; for it does not extend below the rank of Earl.

In these and a multiplicity of other cases, therefore the reader was left in total ignorance respecting the fate of some of the most famous names in history. They were to be found neither amongst extinct nor existing titles.

In the creation of new Peers, also, it was frequently important to ascertain with facility whether or not the title selected was already in the possession of another as a subordinate designation; but such a search was scarcely possible to any but professional genealogists, and, even to them, only after great trouble and a lengthened investigation. Thus, in all probability, it was not extensively known in 1838, when Lord Methuen was raised to the Peerage, that there was already a Baron Methuen in the person of the Duke of Richmond; nor were the public very generally aware in 1839, when Lord Monteagle received his title, that there was already a Barony of Monteagle in the possession of the Marquess of Sligo.

The curious reader may observe in casting his eye over this list, that the following are the only English Counties at present unappropriated as titles:—

Dorset,	Monmouth,
Gloucester,	Oxford, and
Hampshire,	Shropshire.
Middlesex,

The following important places are also unappropriated:—

Brighton,	London,
Cheltenham,	Norwich,
Croydon,	Oldham,
Greenwich,	The Isle of Thanet,
Lambeth,	The Isle of Wight.

The following Scotch Counties are in the same state:—

Banff.	Kirkcudbright,
Clackmannan,	Stirling, and
Dumbarton,	Wigtown.
Forfar,

Two Welsh Counties are vacant—Flint and Merioneth; and, finally, the Irish Counties of

Clare,	Queen's County,
King's County,	Roscommon, and
Monaghan,	Wexford,

are likewise unoccupied as titular designations.

To this enumeration it may be added, that there are many instances of the same title being held by different persons at once; thus there are several—

Lords Boyle,	Lords Hill,
Lords Bruce,	Lords Howard,
Lords Douglas,	Lords Montagu,
Lords Grey,	Lords Murray,
Lords Hamilton,	Lords Stewart or
Lords Hay,	Stuart, etc.,
Lords Herbert,

together with duplicates in abundance and many resemblances, such as—

An Earl Amherst and a Baroness Amherst,
An Earl of Bandon and a Baron of Bandon Bridge,
An Earl of Berkeley and a Baroness Berkeley,
A Bowmont and a Beaumont,
A Camden and a Campden,
An Earl of Desart and an Earl of Dysart,
A Duke of Devonshire and an Earl of Devon,
A Ferrers and a Ferrard,
A Giord and a Guilford,
An Inverurie and an Inverary,
A Baron Jedburgh and a Baron of Jedburgh Forest,

A Kinloss and a Kinross,
A Marquess of Lincolnshire and an Earl of Lincoln,
A Lindsay and a Lindsey,
A Ragley and a Raglan,
A Sudley and a Sudeley.
A Baron Ashton and a Baron Ashton of Hyde, etc.

These instances prove the importance of literal accuracy in the use of titles, but the following list, showing the preservation of ancient orthography among modern Peerages, will save the reader from some mistakes to which persons in general seem very liable. Amongst Noble families the proper spelling is—

Argyll, not Argyle,
Ailesbury, not Aylesbury,
